From the Alumni President

Dear Alumni,

Your Alumni Association continues to move forward, providing a range of events and activities not only in Salisbury, but also in many other locations as well. Chapter events are already planned for this year in Baltimore, Washington, D.C., Annapolis, Ocean City, Florida and New York City. Alumni in other areas have also expressed interest in forming chapters or planning events.

Alumni are becoming more engaged with the association and with the campus, serving on committees, working with the chapters or assisting with our "Alumni in the Classroom" program. Now is a great time for even more of you to consider getting involved. The satisfaction that comes from giving is enormous—whether sharing your time, talents or resources when you're asked for your annual fund gift. The rewards of giving back to our Alma Mater are satisfying and long lasting.

I hope to see you at one of the many alumni events planned for the coming year. Visit our Web site at www.salisbury.edu/alumni/ for a calendar. Feel free to call or e-mail the staff of the Office of Alumni Relations to suggest ideas/events/programs you think would interest alumni. Also be sure to visit the Alumni House and view the progress on the magnificent Miller Alumni Garden if you're in the Salisbury area.

Thank you for the opportunity of representing you as president.

Sincerely,

Pam Winters Dolle

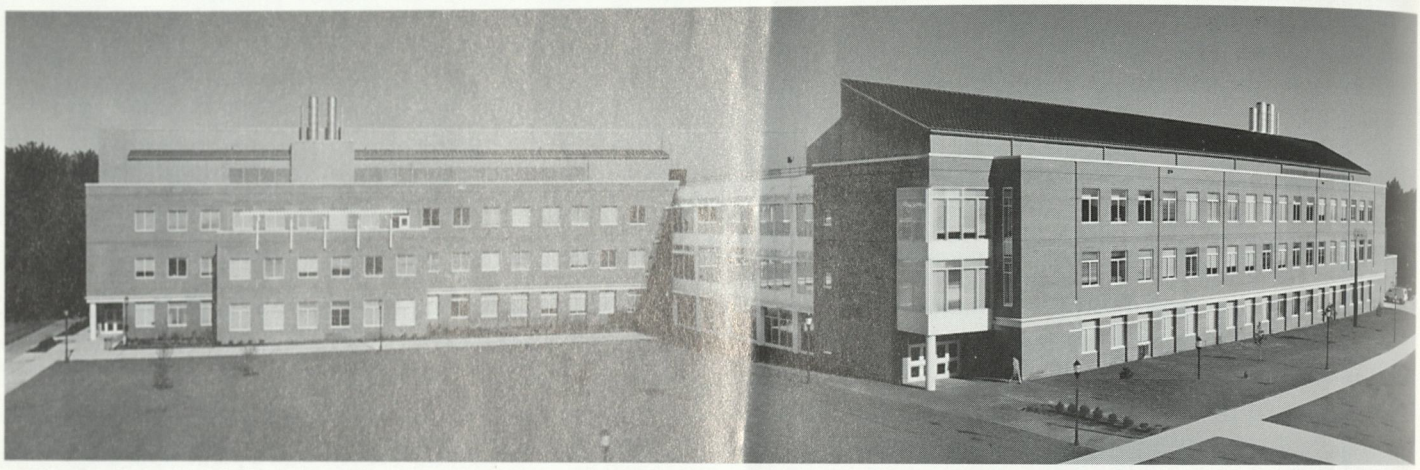
UNIVERSITY Digest



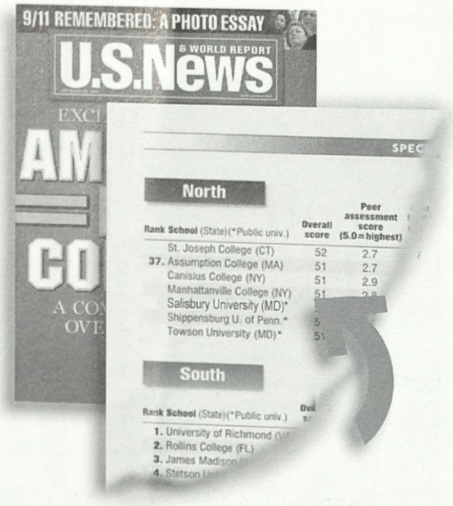
Henson Science Hall Opens

At 145,500 square feet, the recently-opened Henson Science Hall is the largest academic facility on campus and one of the largest science buildings in the state.

The building is home to the Richard A. Henson School of Science and Technology, endowed by the late Maryland aviation pioneer who lived in Salisbury, and also the Guerrieri Laboratory Wing, endowed by the Guerrieri Family Foundation of Ocean City, supplemented by the State of Maryland's Private Donation Incentive Program.

Henson Science Hall is the first academic facility to be constructed at SU in a decade. (The last was Fulton Hall, home to the liberal and performing arts, which opened in 1990.) The new state-of-the-art science hall houses five of the school's seven departments.

Sea Gulls Ascend To New Heights



SU has vaulted into the Top Tier rankings of the just released U.S. News & World Report's 2003 "America's Best Colleges." This marks the first time Salisbury has earned this Top Tier status. SU is ranked in the Best Universities–Master's category–North region, which includes both public and private universities.

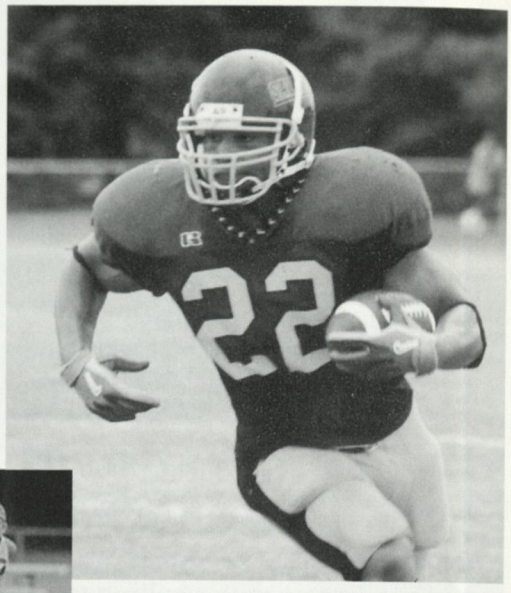
Fall Sports Teams Off To Strong Start

As In Touch goes to press, the first month of the fall sports season has yielded some impressive accomplishments by the Sea Gull athletic teams. Two teams are ranked nationally, with a third team still undefeated and also receiving consideration in national polls. The highlights include:

- The football team's 5-0 start is its best since the 1986 season. The Sea Gulls are ranked among the national leaders in scoring offense (36.8 ppg), rushing offense (386 ypg) and total offense (461 ypg). Individually, senior RB Tony Ellis (pictured) is on pace to finish as the school's all-time rushing and scoring leader.
- The men's soccer team has been ranked in the national top 25 throughout the season and peaked as high as No. 7, its highest national ranking ever. The Gulls have won seven of their first nine, including two victories over nationally-ranked opponents.
- The field hockey team started with a 9-1 record and has been ranked in the top five for most of the season. The Gulls are trying to win their eighth straight Capital Athletic Conference championship and earn their ninth straight NCAA Tournament invitation.
- The men's cross country team won its first Maryland State championship in October. The Gulls placed first among 12 teams in a field that included most of the state's Division I and Division III squads. The SU women placed fourth in the same event.
- The volleyball team has two second place tournament finishes through the first half of the year and six players have earned all-tournament honors.



Senior running back Tony Ellis

Senior forward Jill Cressor became the school's all-time scoring leader earlier this season, passing Sue Fatz Mancha '96. The Sea Gulls, ranked fifth in the nation, are trying to win their eighth straight CAC field hockey championship in 2002.

Senior forward CR Krauss has been Salisbury's leading scorer in 2002, including three game-winning goals. The Gulls earned the program's highest-ever ranking by peaking at number seven in the national poll in September.

Regents Cup Game At Towson

The fourth annual Regents Cup Football Game between Salisbury University and Frostburg State University will be played on Saturday, November 16, at Towson University Stadium. Game time is 1:30 p.m., with parking lots opening at 10 a.m.

Tickets for the game are priced at $8. Tickets for students with a college ID are $4. Children five and under are admitted free. All seats are general admission, with fans encouraged to sit behind their respective team's sideline.

Advance tickets can be purchased at the Guerrieri University Center on SU campus, University Union Ticket Office on Towson's campus, or ordered through Ticketmaster at 410-481-SEAT.

Faculty Appreciation Award

Cast Your Vote!

The Salisbury University Alumni Association would like you to vote for one faculty member from your school for the 2002-03 Faculty Appreciation Award. The guidelines for this annual award recognize faculty:

1. who have served on the SU faculty full time for at least 10 years.
2. whose efforts have had a lasting impression on students
3. who have provided dynamic classroom instruction
4. who exhibit attributes graduates can take with them into their careers
5. who have "made a difference" in the lives of their students
6. who have influenced their students to make a beneficial contribution to their community.

Send one nomination from those eligible below, with four or five sentences of support, by Monday, December 9, 2002, to:
Salisbury University
Office of Alumni Relations
1120 Camden Avenue
Salisbury, MD 21801-6837 or e-mail your nomination to alumni@salisbury.edu.
Each school's selection committee of faculty and alumni will base its decision on the nominations, so clearly support your nomination as outlined by the guidelines above.

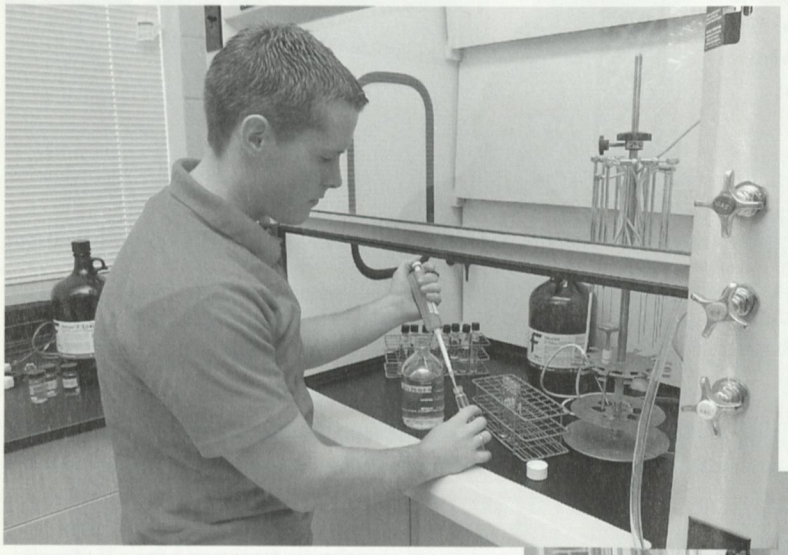
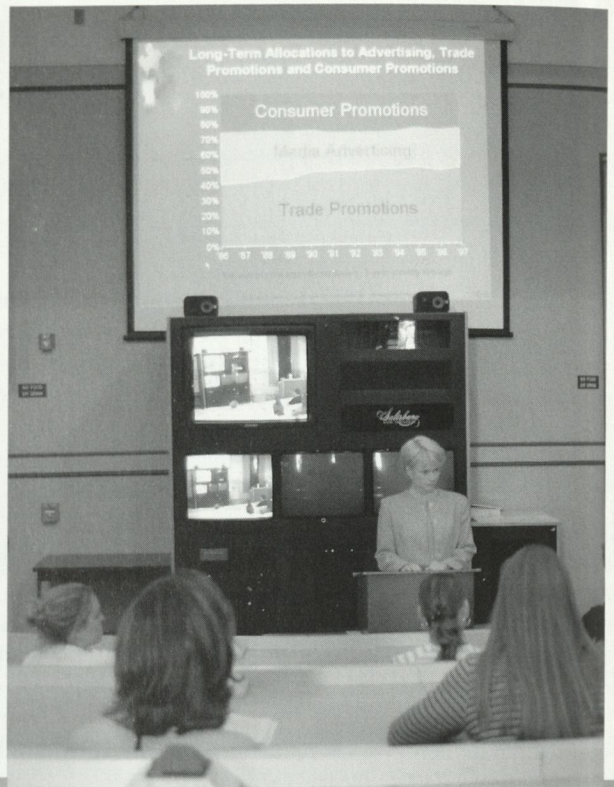
Salisbury University FUND

www.salisbury.edu/univfund/





During 2001-02, alumni, parents, faculty and staff, corporations and foundations, and other friends invested in the bright future of Salisbury University by contributing through the Salisbury University Fund. These gifts directly assisted students by providing scholarships, supporting academic programs, enhancing campus facilities and sustaining important student-centered programs and activities.

The Alumni Campaign continued to enjoy tremendous growth. For the fourth year in a row, the total number of alumni making a gift to their Alma Mater increased. The total number of alumni donors increased by 15 percent. The overall alumni campaign continued to be more comprehensive through direct-mail, Internet broadcasts, personal solicitations and the annual "Call-A-Gull" phonathon.

The Class of 2002 continued a tradition, started by the Class of 2001, of the Senior Class Gift Campaign. The seniors designated the funds raised toward scholarships. The Senior Class Web site continued to grow and become a useful resource for the Class of 2002. Through mailings, e-mails, book sales (On Your Own for the First Time), advertising and special events, the class not only raised funds but raised awareness of the importance of giving to Salisbury University.

Three Reunion Class Gift Campaigns were held during 2001-02. The Class of 1951 raised money toward the purchase of teak lawn and patio furniture for the George and Anne Miller Alumni Garden. The Class of 1961 designated its gift to the Seidel Challenge, a campaign to raise endowment dollars for teacher scholarships. The Class of 1976 directed its donations to the Scarborough Student Leadership Center, a facility built through a generous donation by The Scarborough Group, whose president is Michael Scarborough '76.

The Varsity Club continued to provide needed financial resources for the Sea Gull Athletic Program. The total number of members/donors increased by 21 percent.

Salisbury University wishes to thank all our thoughtful donors for their continued support and involvement. We look forward to your ongoing support during the 2002-2003 Salisbury University Fund Alumni Campaign as we strive toward improving our position as one of the best USM institutions in terms of alumni giving.

Soccer Alumni

The 17th annual men's soccer alumni game was held August 24. Over 40 players returned, and for the first time in several years, the alumni team defeated the varsity team 4-3 in a fiercely contested match. Alumni also played a game against their children. Among the alumni participating were Tony D'Antonio '88, Jeff Dorman '81, Vane Wiggins '81, Paul Zimmerman '82, Nick Chamberlain '81, Sandor Fodor '82, Jimmy Cocchiaro '85 and Gary Dorman '79. The annual event also serves as a fund raiser for the Elmer Lord Memorial Tournament, held annually in September. Anyone wishing to donate to the fund should make their check payable to the SU Foundation and mail to the Foundation at P.O. Box 2655, Salisbury, MD, 21801-2655.

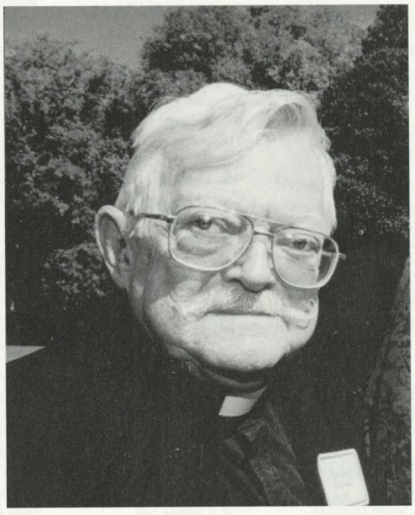
Faculty Death

Alethea Helen Whitney passed away Thursday, May 2, 2002. Ms. Whitney began to teach at Children's Home (FL) and continued to teach at various other schools until eventually coming to Salisbury University, where she began a 25-year career. She served as professor and head of the Physical Education Department and was one of the first women in the country to head both the women's and men's divisions of this department.

Edward H. Nabb

Edward H. Nabb Sr. died Sunday, June 2, 2002. Mr. Nabb was a prominent Cambridge attorney who became a partner and a partial owner of the Law Offices of Harrington, Harrington and Nabb after extensive self-education. He presented Salisbury University with an endowment for the Edward H. Nabb Research Center, a center for genealogical research, in 1998 and also served as president of Dorchester County's Nathan Foundation for more than 20 years. He was presented with a Doctorate of Humane Letters from Salisbury University in 1999 for his lifetime of service.

Edward F. Holloway



Edward Francis Holloway '49 was born October 11, 1926, in Salisbury, MD, the youngest of seven children born to Dr. William J. Holloway, the founder of Salisbury State Normal School, now Salisbury University. After serving in the Army, he returned to Salisbury State and became an exemplary student.

He met Jacquelyn Sturgis, also a student at Salisbury State, while he was working at Johnny's and Sammy's, a local diner. They married on July 8, 1949, at the end of her junior year. Jackie never returned to college as she soon learned she was pregnant with their daughter, Constance Marie Holloway.

Edward did his graduate work at University of Maryland and University of Delaware and was a teacher/principal in the Wicomico County public school system until 1961. That year the family moved to Gambier, OH, where Edward entered Bexley Hall at Kenyon College to become an Episcopal priest. In 1964 Father Holloway received a Master's of Theology there. He then took a headmaster position in Boynton Beach, FL, at St. Joseph's. In 1967 the family moved to Daytona Beach where he became headmaster of St. James Day School. Jackie taught fifth grade at St. James until her death from cancer in March 1984.

In December 1984, Father Holloway married Kandy Lowe, a widow whose son had attended St. James. Soon after, Father left St. James and became vicar at St. Timothy's. He held that position for five years and then became assistant priest at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, a position he held until his death. He died on July 7, 2002, after being hospitalized for five days for complications from emphysema.

Richard A. Henson

Richard A. "Dick" Henson died Wednesday, June 12, 2002. In his earlier years, he started the Henson Flying Service in Hagerstown, MD, and became the chief executive officer of his company by the age of 21. Mr. Henson was one of the first to be given a contract to train future instructors for the military during World War II. In 1987, he gave Salisbury University's school of science a generous endowment, which led to the creation of the Henson School of Science and Technology. Along with other accomplishments, Mr. Henson also established the Richard A. Henson Foundation for educational institutions and community services, through which he made several generous contributions to organizations on the Lower Eastern Shore.
